

Alderwood School will support your learning by:	Your Parents/Carers will support your learning by:	You will support your own learning by:
providing you with a safe and happy environment in which to learn.	giving a value to your education.	following the core values.
providing you with opportunities to access different subject areas.	making sure that your attendance and punctuality are high.	coming to school with everything that you need for the day.
helping you to reach your full learning potential.	supporting the school with our positive behaviour system.	always speaking to an adult about any worries or concerns.
assisting you to act responsibly.	providing you with a quiet place to complete your homework.
encouraging you to feel part of your school community.	always listening and responding to worries or concerns and speaking to the school is necessary.
involving you in extra curricular activities.
always listening and responding to worries or concerns.		