Dear Parents/Carers

Re: William Booth College

Year 6 are taking part in the Architecture in Schools Project. As part of this, they will visit The William Booth College in Denmark Hill accompanied by two architects who will show them around and help them study the building. While we are there the children will have the chance to climb the tower at the centre of the building. This includes two stair cases of 50 steps each. The children will be taught how to use the stair case safely, but if you would prefer your child did not climb, please indicate on the slip below. Children with asthma will not be able to climb.

Venue: William Booth College, Champion Park, Denmark Hill

Date: Monday 26<sup>h</sup> March 2018

Time: 9.30am – 3.30pm Approx.

Transport: Public Transport

Clothing: The children should wear full school uniform and a waterproof coat.

Lunch Please can you ensure that your child brings a packed lunch: No glass bottles, fizzy drinks, sweets or chocolate.

Yours sincerely

Mrs K Cutajar
Co-Heads of school

Miss N Tilley
Co-Heads of school
